thank you!

Hi Eric,

I just wanted to say a heartfelt thank you to you. This was a very difficult process for my mom and you and your associates were so comforting as well as being professional. Abby is an amazing person and attorney. She treated my mom as if she were her own. Katie is wonderful too. She is very on top of things.

Thanks again!
Teri

Happy New Year

Looking back at this past year, 2014 has proven to be a great one. I am honored to say we have helped numerous people get their lives back on track and built lasting relationships along the way. The letters we receive from clients, like the one you will see in this newsletter, makes us proud that we provide our clients the freedom to start fresh!

As the economy continues to recover, this year looks to hold more promise for continued and increased success.

To the staff at Klein Law Group, thank you for all of your hard work this past year. To all of our clients, I would like to wish you the very best for 2015.

Eric N. Klein

Florida Says Yes To Same-Sex Marriage

Earlier this month, Florida became the 36th state to lift its ban on same-sex marriage and opened the door for gay and lesbian couples to say, "I do." The long-awaited ruling not only affords same-sex couples the right to a marriage license, but also to other perks heterosexual couples have experienced for years.

Find Strength In Others After Divorce

Divorce is rarely an easy transition for anyone. Often divorcing people experience a full range of powerful emotions from anxiety,

Eric and the U.S. Ambassador to New Zealand

Recently, I ran into a friend of mine who was just confirmed by the United States Senate as the new U.S. Ambassador to New Zealand. His name is Mark Gilbert. He is a former major-league baseball player who played for the Chicago White Sox.

He is a member of our synagogue and I spent 10 days in Israel with him about a year and a half ago. When I saw him, he was preparing to leave for New Zealand. Best wishes to Mark in his new position.

grief, betrayal to guilt, rejection and anger. Many individuals feel isolated and stigmatized once their marriage is dissolved. People want a safe place to be able to talk about their experience without burdening others ... Continue Reading

2015 FIDF Gala Dinner Big Success

On January 11th, members of our firm attended the 2015 Friends of the Israel Defense Forces (FIDF) Gala Dinner. The event successfully raised almost $2 million to help support the brave men and women of IDF, who stand guard on every border of Israel to ensure no harm comes to its people.

Eric Klein and his wife, Gillian, were honored to serve as the event's committee representatives.
