Celebrity Couples and Prenuptial Agreements -- A Marriage Must-Have

When high-profile celebrities announce their plans to marry, there's a lot of talk about the ring, the dress, and the venue. However, the public also enjoys speculating whether or not these couples will sign a prenuptial agreement.

Dwyane Wade's new soon-to-be-bride, Gabrielle Union, publicly announced her insistence on having a prenup drawn up with the Miami Heat baller. Union, who has been married before, ...

One Late Payment Does Make A Difference

A late payment on one account could cost you higher rates and fees on all of your accounts -- from your credit cards to your auto insurance. More and more, companies are sifting through your credit reports looking for justification to increase your interest rates or say no to a higher credit limit.

Just one, single late payment or over-limit charge can have an adverse effect on all ...

Bankruptcy Corner: "Real Housewives Of New Jersey" Stars In Hot Water

Joe and Teresa Giudice, stars of the "Real Housewives of New Jersey," fell short on their repayment to creditors during their bankruptcy ordeal which started in 2010. The bankruptcy trustee overseeing the reality television couples' finances has submitted his final report, which says the couple only satisfied $7,500 of their debts and still owe $13.4 million to their creditors, who can once again pursue the couple for repayment.

The Giudices ...
