Eric N. Klein Quoted In The New York Times On Seniors Filing Bankruptcy

This month, Eric Klein was quoted in The New York Times for his expertise in helping seniors file for bankruptcy protection. The article entitled, "Bankruptcy Can Help Seniors Protect Assets," discussed the benefits of bankruptcy for older Americans who are drowning in debt and feeling financially-helpless. Under bankruptcy law, retirement income and savings are usually safeguarded from creditors so retirees would have a chance to take a ...

Missouri Woman Wins $83 Million Settlement After Debt Collector Makes A Costly Error

A Missouri jury ordered Portfolio Recovery, a large bad debt buyer,

Thank
You

Hey Eric,

I want to thank you and Sheri for helping me out with my bankruptcy. Without you guys, it wouldn't have went as smooth as it was. Sheri is very professional, very strict and she was excellent! I can't say anything more for that woman what she has done for me and made me feel so relaxed through this whole process.

I wanted to thank you again. And I did talk to Sheri to thank her but thank you guys, thank you, thank you very much. I'm so happy I chose you guys to do this for me.

Sincerely,

Neil C.

to pay nearly $83 million to Maria Guadalupe Mejia, of Kansas City, Missouri, because they pursued her for a $1,000 credit card bill that didn't belong to her. The jury found the collector violated the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act which is a $250,000 fine. Further, it was found that because Portfolio Recovery maliciously...
